

Clark County Dairy Kids Formal

RULES & ENTRY INFORMATION

We are excited to host a new, fun event at the Clark County fair. The aim is to create some fun for exhibitors, promote their outstanding dairy project work, and reward them with sizable cash prizes.

What is a Dairy Formal?

Similar to a Dairy Futurity, exhibitors dress up in formal attire and parade their animals. Contestants (from all breeds) will be divided into groups based on animal ages and the number of entrants. We anticipate 2-3 classes. As each exhibitor enters the ring parading their animal, they will have a bio read about themselves and their animal. Photos will be taken. A judge will place the class and select the class winner and best dressed individuals.

What is considered “formal attire”?

Showmen are encouraged to dress in formal clothes. (No shorts) For girls, this can be a long dress, prom dress, short dress, tiara, hat, etc. For the guys, a suit, dress shirt, suspenders, hats, bow ties, vests, mustaches, top hat, etc. Be creative but also tasteful. All exhibitors MUST wear close toed shoes or boots. We suggest dresses be 6 inches off the ground so gals won't trip while leading their heifer.

Who can participate?

Dairy youth ages 9-19 on Jan. 1, 2024 who are exhibiting at the fair. You must show your own animal. Youth showing with the Clark County State Fair exhibit are eligible to participate if they are entered & exhibiting in the Clark County Open Show. Youth can only show one animal. No cows.

What are the prizes?

All exhibitors will receive a cash award. The amount will depend on event sponsorships raised. Class winners will receive an additional $100. Best dressed awards will be an additional $50. We will be soliciting event sponsors to fund the show.
